

09:30 Morning Plenary Session

Welcome

Ian Green, Terrence Higgins Trust

Opening remarks

The Rt. Hon the Lord Fowler

Towards eliminating HIV in most affected communities in the UK

Professor Valerie Delpuch, Public Health England (PHE)

Where do we go from here?

Using generous leadership to meet the needs of our communities

Dawn Austwick, Big Lottery Fund

11:20 Combination Prevention

- Update on the PrEP IMPACT trial

Nalini Iyanger, PHE

- Rapid initiation of treatment in a central London clinic

Dr Alan McOwan, 56 Dean Street

- Size matters: promoting choice to increase engagement with condom promotion

Cary James, HIV Prevention England

13:20 Afternoon Plenary Session

We started something – HIV prevention in England

Cary James, HIV Prevention England

Investment in HIV prevention and testing services in England

Deborah Gold and Kat Smithson, National AIDS Trust

14:40 PrEP: From Trial to Reality

- Implementing PrEP in France: lessons and insights

Etienne Fouquay, AIDES (France)

- PrEP: An opportunity to refocus HIV prevention

Winnie Seruma, Community Advocate

- Motivations and barriers to effective uptake of PrEP for black MSM in London

Charlie Witzel, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine

15:50 Closing Plenary Session

Panel and discussion: Reflections and next steps

Panellists: Professor Jim McManus, Hertfordshire County Council

Marion Wadiba, The NAZ Project London

Dr Michael Brady, Terrence Higgins Trust/King's College Hospital, NHS Foundation Trust

Dr Will Nutland, PrEPster

Winnie Seruma, Community advocate

16:45 Thanks and Close

#HPE2017