

14 March 2018
10AM-4PM
The Landing
MediaCityUK

HIV Pre-exposure Prophylaxis (PrEP) Information Seminar

Agenda

Time	Item
9.45	Arrival of delegates
10.00	Welcome
10.05	Effectiveness of PrEP A quick review of the clinical evidence and key populations
10.35	Understanding different users' experiences accessing and using PrEP in England
12.00	Lunch
13.00	The role of PrEP alongside other HIV and STI prevention tools
13.30	The PrEP IMPACT Trial Overview, current implementation and emerging issues
14.20	Break
14.30	PASH perspectives Delivering comprehensive HIV and sexual health services for key communities in Greater Manchester
15.00	Equitable PrEP access Increasing appropriate uptake among key populations
16.00	Thanks and close

Speakers and facilitators include Dr Michael Brady, HIV Specialist and Principal Investigator for the IMPACT trial at Kings College Hospital; Dr Will Nutland, Co-founder of PrEPster; Greg Owen, Co-founder of IWantPrEPNow; Emma Zurowski, PASH Programme Lead, BHA; and Peter Bampton, Sexual Health Lead, The LGBT Foundation.